§2-12-1 Short title. Chapters 12 - 20 of this subtitle 2 shall be known and may be cited as the "Neighborhood Plan". [Eff] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-12-2 Definitions. Except as otherwise provided in this plan, for the purposes of these rules, unless the context otherwise specifically requires, the words and phrases used herein are defined as follows:

"Agency" means any office, department, board, commission or other governmental unit of the federal, state, city, or other municipal government, or any other legal public governmental entity.

"Ballot" means a written or printed, or partly written and partly printed, paper or card containing the names of persons to be voted for and the office to be filled. A ballot may be in electronic form.

"Candidate" means an individual who seeks election to a seat on a board as provided in chapter 17.

"Chief elections officer" means the individual authorized under section 2-17-2 to direct the administration and conduct of all board elections.

"Chief monitoring officer" means the independent person appointed by the commission pursuant to section 2-17-3 to observe the conduct of an election and report the results to the chief elections officer.

"Election" means all board elections, biennial or special, unless otherwise specifically stated.

"Initiative petition" means the document submitted to the commission pursuant to section 2-15-1 for the purpose of establishing a board.

"Invalid ballot" means any ballot which does not meet the requirements for a ballot to be counted.

"Legal resident alien" means any individual who is not a citizen or national of the United States of America, but who is allowed under federal law to reside in the United States and resides in the city.

"Military family member" means an individual who: (1) is a spouse or child of a member of the uniformed forces of the United States of America who is stationed in and resides in the city, and (2) resides in the city even if registered to vote in another jurisdiction.

"Military personnel" means an individual who: (1) is a member of the uniformed forces of the United States of America, and (2) is stationed in and resides in the city even if registered to vote in another state.

"Neighborhood assistant" means an individual employed by the city in the commission office whose duties include providing administrative and recording assistance to the commission and boards, and who is duly authorized to administer oaths.

"Registered voter" means any individual registered to vote in a board election pursuant to section 2-17-5.

"Replacement ballot" means a ballot issued to a voter who spoils or loses a ballot, or reports no delivery or receipt of a ballot, pursuant to section 2-17-17.

"Spoiled ballot" means a ballot which is marked incorrectly by the voter, is misprinted, is illegibly printed, or contains some other defect.

"Uncontested race" means an election contest in which the number of registered candidates is equal to or less than the number of open seats available.

"Vote cast" means any ballot which is properly returned to the commission, including a ballot that is blank or a ballot that is later rejected or disqualified for any reason.

"Voting system" means the use of electronic ballot cards, paper ballots, or any other system designated by the commission or the chief elections officer by which votes are cast and counted in a board election. [Eff] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a))
(Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-12-3 Severability. If any provision of this plan or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this plan that can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this plan are severable.
[Eff] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-12-4 Inquiries to the corporation counsel. All legal inquiries by the boards and for their members that are directed to the department of the corporation counsel shall be submitted in writing through the executive secretary, unless otherwise directed by the corporation counsel. [Eff] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-12-5 Reimbursable expenses. The members of the boards shall receive no compensation, but shall be entitled to reimbursement of authorized expenses incurred by them in the performance of their official duties as approved by the executive secretary and as provided by law. [Eff] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-12-6 Transition. (a) All proceedings pending before the commission including initiative petitions, other petitions, hearings and investigations not completed by the effective date of this plan shall continue in accordance with the rules in effect when the proceedings were initiated.

(b) Notwithstanding subsection (a), initiative petitions may be amended by the commission to conform with this plan in accordance with chapter 15. [Eff] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-12-7 Force and effect of law. This plan and any rule thereof adopted in accordance with chapter 20 shall have the force and effect of law. [Eff] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

POWERS, DUTIES, AND FUNCTIONS OF THE NEIGHBORHOOD BOARDS

- $2-13-1 Purpose.
- $2-13-2 General powers, duties, and functions of the boards.
- $2-13-3 Political activity.
- $2-13-4 Standards of conduct.
- $2-13-5 Conflicts of interest.
- $2-13-6 Community forum limitations.
- $2-13-7 Representative capacity of board members.
- $2-13-8 Membership.
- $2-13-9 Concurrent holding of elective public office prohibition.

$2-13-1 Purpose. Boards shall increase and assure effective citizen participation in the decisions of government in accordance with this plan . [Eff
] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §§14-104)

$2-13-2 General powers, duties, and functions of the boards. (a) The boards are responsible for actively participating in the functions and processes of government by identifying, addressing, communicating, and seeking solutions to neighborhood issues and concerns, both within and outside of their respective neighborhood areas. Their actions should reflect the needs, wants, and interests of the neighborhood. Boards may take the initiative in selecting and prioritizing their activities, and provide reasonable means to increase and assure effective citizen participation in the decisions of government.

(b) The powers, duties, and functions of boards shall include:

- (1) Increase and assure effective community participation in the decisions of government by providing additional and improved opportunities for public input and interaction, and communicating that input to the appropriate persons and agencies;
- (2) Initiate, review, comment, and make recommendations concerning any general plan, development and sustainable communities plan, zoning, planning, permitting, and other land use issues within the city;
- (3) Identify, prioritize, review, comment, and make recommendations concerning any government capital improvement proposal, plan, or project;
- (4) Assist with evaluations of the efficiency and effectiveness of government services and programs, whether provided by government agencies or their contractors;
- (5) Initiate, review, comment, and make recommendations concerning any other substantive issue reasonably related to the processes or decisions of government;
- (6) Encourage understanding of the decision-making processes of government; and
- (7) Encourage the role of the board as a public and informational forum on community and governmental issues.

(c) Boards, in compliance with this plan and all other applicable laws, may communicate and cooperate with each other, especially on a regional basis, to promote general awareness and understanding of issues of mutual concern, explore opportunities for collaboration, and foster beneficial relationships to further increase and assure effective citizen participation in the decisions of government.

(d) Each board may express its neighborhood's view, opinion, or advice on matters within the scope of the board's jurisdiction to properly fulfill its duty. No deference is required of a board to any other board.

(e) Boards may cooperate and collaborate with persons, agencies, and community organizations so long as the cooperation and collaboration does not exceed the powers, duties, and functions of boards as allowed by law.

(f) The commission shall provide reasonable assistance and reasonable operating expenses for the boards for the performance of their powers, duties, and functions. [Eff] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-13-3 Political activity. (a) The boards and their members shall not use the official board title or membership position to:

- (1) Endorse a candidate for elective public office; or
- (2) Engage in any political activity which could reasonably be implied to endorse or support a candidate for elective public office.

(b) The boards may conduct candidate forums.

(c) This section shall not preclude the right of any member, while not engaged in the performance of the member's scope of official duties, (1) to engage in these political activities as a private citizen, or (2) to list the member's position as part of the member's experience if the member is a candidate for elective public office. [Eff] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-13-4

§2-13-4 Standards of conduct. (a) Board members, in performing their duties, shall demonstrate by their example the highest standards of ethical conduct, to the end that the public may justifiably have trust and confidence in the integrity of the neighborhood board system. Board members shall hold their offices or positions for the benefit of their neighborhood, shall recognize that their neighborhood's interest is their primary concern, and shall faithfully discharge the duties of their offices regardless of personal considerations.

(b) Board members shall not use their positions to secure or grant special consideration, treatment, advantage, privilege, or exemption to themselves or any person beyond that which is available to every other person. [Eff] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §§14-104)

§2-13-5 Conflicts of interest. (a) No board member shall:

- (1) Solicit or accept any gift, directly or indirectly, whether in the form of money, loan, gratuity, favor, service, thing or promise, or in any other form, under circumstances in which it can reasonably be inferred that the gift is intended to influence the member in the performance of the member's official duties. Nothing herein shall preclude the solicitation or acceptance of lawful contributions for the board member's own board election;
- (2) Disclose confidential information gained by reason of the member's office or position, or use that information for the member's personal gain or benefit of anyone; or
- (3) Engage in any business transaction or activity, or have a financial interest, direct or indirect, which is incompatible with the proper discharge of a member's official duties or which may tend to impair the independence of judgment in the performance of the member's official duties.

[Eff] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a))
(Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-13-6 Community forum limitations. (a) The democratic and advisory duty of the boards is to increase and assure effective citizen participation in the decisions of government in accordance with law.

(b) Board meetings, held by boards in the performance of their powers, duties, and functions, shall serve as community forums by the promotion of open expression and discussion of ideas relating to government and community processes and activities by the board members and public. Boards shall ensure that any public discussion is responsibly conducted and is reasonably related to the purpose stated in subsection (a). [Eff] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-13-7 Representative capacity of board members.

(a) Each member of a board shall represent the entire district and act responsibly to fulfill the board's democratic and advisory duty.

(b) All discussion and consideration of public affairs shall avoid private matters or matters under litigation except to the extent that policies, processes, or decision-making of government are involved.

(c) Boards may reasonably engage in activities which recognize and celebrate the participation, contributions, and accomplishments of persons, agencies, and community organizations in the life of that neighborhood area or the community at large.
[Eff] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-13-8 Membership. (a) A member of the board shall be a resident, including military personnel, military family members, and legal resident aliens:

- (1) Whose primary residence is in the neighborhood district and subdistrict, as applicable;
- (2) Who is at least eighteen years of age; and
- (3) Who is duly elected by vote of the respective neighborhood district or subdistrict, as applicable, or appointed by vote of the respective board to fill a vacancy, in accordance with this plan and all other applicable laws.

(b) The city residence of any military personnel and any military family member shall serve as the primary residence for purposes of membership requirements under this section.

(c) Except as set forth in section 2-13-9, no officer or employee of any branch or agency of the federal, state, or city government shall be precluded from membership on a board.

(d) No term limits shall apply to board members.
[Eff] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-13-9 Concurrent holding of elective public office prohibition. (a) An individual shall not serve concurrently in an elective public office and as a member of any board.

(b) A board member elected or appointed to an elective public office shall be disqualified from membership on the board upon the earlier of the start of the term of office for which elected or upon the administration of the oath of office for which appointed.

(c) A board member shall not be required to resign from the member's seat to run as a candidate for elective public office. [Eff] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-14-26 Reporting change of residency.

§2-14-27 Disqualification by relocation.

§2-14-1 Oath of office. (a) Before entering upon the duties of office, each member elected or appointed shall subscribe to the following oath or affirmation before a person duly qualified to administer oaths, including neighborhood assistants:

 "I solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will faithfully support the Constitution and laws of the United States of America, the Constitution and laws of the State of Hawaii, the charter and laws of the City and County of Honolulu, and the provisions of the neighborhood plan, and will conscientiously and impartially discharge my duties, to the best of my ability, as a member of the neighborhood board to which I have been elected (or appointed)."

 (b) Newly elected or appointed members may not assume the duties of office, participate in the election of officers, or otherwise conduct board business until they subscribe to the required oath or affirmation of office.

 (c) A member shall be disqualified and the seat vacant if a member fails to subscribe to the required oath of office within thirty days after:

- (1) The date the board term begins; or
- (2) If filling a vacancy, the date of appointment by the board or the commission.
 [Eff] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a))
 (Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-14-2 Board term. The term of office for the members of the boards shall be for a period of two years, from July 1 of an odd numbered year to June 30 of the next successive odd numbered year. All board members shall serve non-staggered terms of office, and all board seats shall be up for election at the same time in odd numbered years. [Eff] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-14-3 Transition and initial convening. (a) The re-elected board member who holds the longest continuous tenure on the board shall serve as chair pro tem of the new board and shall be responsible for the preparation and filing of the agenda for the first board meeting, whether regular or special, held on or after July 1 of the new term. The agenda for the first board meeting of the new term shall include the election of officers as the first item of business.

(b) The chair pro tem shall convene the first board meeting of the new term and conduct business until the first election is concluded of an officer who is qualified under this plan to serve as the presiding officer. The chair pro tem shall then pass the gavel to the newly elected presiding officer.

(c) If no newly elected member of the board has previously served on the board, or if two or more board members hold equal lengths of tenure on the board, the chair pro tem shall be decided by lot.

(d) If the board is unable to elect a chair or other presiding officer, no agenda item may be taken out of order except for actions to:

- (1) Fill any vacant seat on the board;
- (2) Pre-establish a specific day of the month on which the board will hold its regular meetings;
- (3) Pre-establish a specific location at which the board will hold its regular meetings; and
- (4) Take any budgetary action necessary for the board to continue convening its regular meetings. [Eff] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-14-4 Membership vacancy. (a) Any board member vacancy occurring other than by the expiration of a term of office shall be filled by the board as soon as practicable after its occurrence. The remaining members of the board shall appoint a successor of requisite qualifications to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the unexpired term.

(b) A vacancy shall be filled at a regular or special meeting of the board.

(c) A majority vote of all the members to which the board is entitled shall be necessary to appoint an individual of requisite qualifications to fill any vacancy.

(d) Before a board meeting to fill a vacancy, each individual seeking appointment to the vacant seat shall provide evidence, satisfactory to the executive secretary or designee, that the individual is duly qualified to fill the vacancy.

(e) If one or more vacancies on a board or the failure of a board to achieve quorum in successive meetings interferes with the ability of a board to conduct its business, the commission may take action to fill any vacancy. [Eff] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-14-5 Attendance of members. (a) Members shall attend all meetings of the board. If a member cannot attend a meeting, the member shall, where possible, promptly notify the chair or the executive secretary before the meeting.

(b) The absence of any member shall be noted as such and not as excused or unexcused.

(c) To be considered present under this section, a member must be present at a meeting for at least 10 minutes more than one-half of the total duration of the meeting.

(d) Each board shall keep a record of attendance of all its members. [Eff] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-14-6 Absences and removal process; resignation.

(a) If a board member is absent for more than three regular board meetings within a one year period, beginning July 1 and ending June 30, the board shall notify the member of the absences in writing sent by both United States registered or certified mail with return receipt requested and first class mail at the member's last known address within seven calendar days of the third absence.

(b) The notice shall:

(1) Inform the member of the accumulated three absences; and

(2) Inform the member that at the board's next regular meeting the board will consider whether to remove the member based on the member's absences and declare the seat vacant.

(c) The board may authorize the commission office to perform the actions set forth in subsection (a).

(d) A board member who has accumulated three absences and has received written notice from the board shall have the opportunity to appear before the board to explain the circumstances of the absences and request to be retained on the board. After hearing the matter, the board may declare the seat vacant.

(e) No board shall adopt any policy providing for the automatic removal of a board member based on absences; a board must take specific action to declare a seat vacant.

(f) So long as a board member remains on the board, the board shall continue to formally consider removal of the member pursuant to subsections (a), (b), and (d) whenever the member accumulates an additional three absences not considered previously by the board.

(g) If the board is unable to hold a meeting pursuant to this section due to lack of quorum caused by at least three successive absences of any board member, the commission may take action to declare the member's seat vacant and fill the vacancy.

(h) A board member may resign from the seat held at any time and for any reason in writing to the board chair and the executive secretary. [Eff]
(Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-14-7 Meetings. (a) A board shall hold a regular meeting on a pre-established day of the month in not less than nine of the twelve months within a one year period, beginning July 1 and ending June 30, unless otherwise established by the commission, provided that at no time shall more than two consecutive months elapse between regular meetings.

(b) The pre-established time and place shall be determined by the board at the initial convening of each term, with consideration given to the (1) board's then established regular meeting time and place, (2) availability of the meeting place, (3) availability of commission office's support services, and (4) the meeting schedule of the neighborhood board system as a whole.

(c) A special meeting may be called at any time by the chair or by the board.

(d) Unless otherwise approved by the commission, all board meetings shall be open public meetings held within the board's district boundaries except for executive meetings as provided in section 2-14-8.

(e) All or any part of a meeting, except an executive meeting, may be recorded by any person in attendance by means of a tape recorder or any other means of sonic reproduction; provided the recording does not interfere with the conduct of the meeting.
[Eff] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-14-8 Executive meetings. A board may hold executive meetings closed to the public in accordance with section 92-4, HRS. [Eff] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-14-9 Meeting notice and agenda. (a) A board shall give written public notice of any and all regular, special, or anticipated executive meetings. The notice shall state the day, date, time, and place of the meeting, and include an agenda which lists all of the items to be considered. In the case of an anticipated executive meeting, the purpose shall be stated on the agenda.

(b) The meeting notice and agenda shall be prepared by the chair or presiding officer and shall be filed in the city clerk's office and commission office for public inspection at least six calendar days before the meeting. The notice and agenda shall also be posted at the site of the meeting whenever feasible.

(c) If the chair receives a written request from any member of the chair's board to include an item on the agenda, the chair shall:

- (1) Include the item on agenda for the next regular meeting; or
- (2) Include the request for inclusion of the item on the agenda for the next regular meeting for the board to decide whether to include the item on the agenda for the following regular meeting; provided that if the request is not received at least ten days before the next regular meeting, the item or the request shall be included on the agenda for the following meeting.

(d) Once filed with the city clerk, no item shall be added to the agenda for that duly noticed meeting except by a recorded two-thirds vote of all members to which the board is entitled, and provided that no item shall be added to the agenda if it is of reasonably major importance and action thereon by the board will affect a significant number of persons.

[Eff] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-14-10

§2-14-10 Priority of business. (a) After the call to order of a regular meeting, the board shall give priority to representatives of the Honolulu Fire Department and the Honolulu Police Department to present their reports to the board and community, and respond to inquiries.

(b) The board may designate any matter properly placed on the agenda to be a special item of business, which may take precedence over other business.

(c) All questions relating to the priority of business to be acted upon by the board shall be decided without debate. [Eff] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-14-11 Meeting minutes. (a) A board shall keep written minutes of all meetings. Unless otherwise required by law, neither a full transcript nor a recording of the meeting is required, but the written minutes shall give a true reflection of the matters discussed at the meeting and the views expressed by the members and participants. The minutes shall include, but need not be limited to:

- (1) The day, date, time, and place of the meeting;
- (2) The members of the board recorded as either present or absent;
- (3) The time of arrival or departure of any member when the arrival or departure affects quorum;
- (4) The substance of all matters proposed, discussed, or decided; and a record, by individual member, of any vote taken and any recusal (and related disclosure) made; and
- (5) Any other information that any member of the board, during the applicable meeting, requests be included or reflected in the meeting minutes.

(b) The minutes shall be publicly available within thirty calendar days after the meeting, except when disclosure would be inconsistent with chapter

92F, HRS; provided that minutes of executive meetings may be withheld so long as their publication would defeat the lawful purpose of the executive meeting, but for no longer.

(c) If quorum is not attained to convene a meeting, the board shall prepare a memorandum for the record of the absence of quorum and the status of the noticed meeting.

(d) The board may approve or amend and approve the minutes at a subsequent regular board meeting.
[Eff] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-14-12 Quorum and majority vote. (a) The presence of a majority of all the members to which the board is entitled shall constitute a quorum to do business.

(b) The vote of not less than the majority of the entire membership to which the board is entitled shall be necessary to take any official action, unless otherwise specifically provided by this plan or by law.

(c) A board member who is present at the meeting shall be counted for the purpose of determining quorum.

(d) If a quorum is lost by any member leaving the meeting, the meeting shall be suspended and no business may be conducted. The meeting shall not resume until a quorum is re-established. If the meeting cannot be resumed within a reasonable period of time, it shall be adjourned.

(e) If no quorum is present for a scheduled meeting or quorum is lost and the meeting is adjourned, the presiding officer may remain and listen to persons and allow the presentation of reports from government agencies, elected officials, or engaged presenters, provided that no other board members are present and that the presiding officer first reads aloud a statement advising those persons present that:

§2-14-12

- (1) Due to lack of quorum, no meeting is being held by the board and no minutes are being taken;
- (2) Presentations are not being received on behalf of the board and shall not be in the board's record;
- (3) Any communication to the presiding officer shall not be considered public testimony and shall not be in the board's record; and
- (4) Any communication by the presiding officer is not made on behalf of the board and shall not be on the board's record: [Eff
] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-14-13 Voting. (a) Each board member shall vote on all actions before the board except when the member is recused or otherwise unable to vote. To participate in a vote on any matter, a member shall be present at the meeting when the vote is taken. No proxy shall be allowed.

(b) A member may choose to be recused and not participate in the discussion and vote on any matter, provided the reason is disclosed and announced to the board.

(c) Four voting methods shall be allowed to ascertain the decision of the board upon any matter: roll call; by show of hands; by voice vote; and by unanimous consent. The members shall vote in the affirmative, negative, or may abstain. [Eff

§2-14-14 Disclosure. (a) Any board member who knows he or she has a personal or private interest, direct or indirect, in any proposal before the board shall disclose the interest either orally or in writing to the board. The disclosure shall also be made a matter of public record before the board takes any action on the proposal.

(b) A member who makes any disclosure shall not be disqualified from participation in the discussion or vote on the matter. A member may choose to be recused. A recused member shall not participate in the discussion or vote. [Eff] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-14-15 Order and decorum. (a) All board members shall promote and preserve the order and decorum of the board's proceedings.

(b) The presiding officer of the board or a majority of the board may expel any individual whose conduct at the board meeting is disruptive, disorderly, contemptuous, or improper for the conduct of business at the board meeting. [Eff] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-14-16 Discussion. When a board member or person properly before the board wishes to speak, the member or person shall address the chair, be recognized before proceeding, and shall confine remarks to the subject under discussion, avoiding personalities and abusive language. [Eff] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-14-17 Adjournment. A meeting is adjourned when:

- (1) A motion to adjourn is adopted;
- (2) There is no further business on the agenda;
- (3) The presiding officer adjourns the meeting due to exigent circumstances that require immediate attention; or
- (4) Quorum is lost pursuant to section 2-14-12(d). [Eff] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-14-18 Officers. (a) The officers of a board shall consist of the chair, one or more vice chairs, the secretary, the treasurer, and any other officer the board determines it needs to conduct its business.

§2-14-18

NEIGHBORHOOD PLAN OF THE CITY & COUNTY OF HONOLULU

CHAPTER 15

INITIATION AND FORMATION OF NEIGHBORHOODS

- §2-15-1 Initiative petition; voter signatures requirement.
- §2-15-2 Initiative petition components; board composition.
- §2-15-3 Filing and verification.
- §2-15-4 Commission consideration process.
- §2-15-5 Reservation of commission powers.
- §2-15-6 Amendment of the initiative petition.
- §2-15-7 Amendment process.
- §2-15-8 Number of board members.

§2-15-1 Initiative petition; voter signatures requirement. A neighborhood shall be formed in accordance with this chapter upon the submission of an initiative petition to the commission signed by the lesser of five per cent or one hundred of the registered voters within the proposed neighborhood district boundaries in the last general election.
[Eff] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-15-2

§2-15-2 Initiative petition components; board composition. (a) The initiative petition shall set forth the following:

- (1) The proposed board name;
- (2) The proposed neighborhood district boundaries and geographical definition;
- (3) The proposed board organization by membership composition and scope of representation — at large, subdistrict, or a combination of both;
- (4) Any proposed subdistrict area with a map and geographical definitions; and
- (5) The proposed number of members to be elected from the district or each subdistrict, as applicable.

(b) Each neighborhood shall have a board composed of an odd number of members that totals not less than nine members nor more than nineteen members.
[Eff] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-15-3 Filing and verification. The initiative petition shall be filed with the commission, which shall transmit the petition to the city clerk for verification of the signatures as being those of registered voters residing within the district boundaries of the proposed neighborhood. [Eff] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-15-4 Commission consideration process. (a) After receiving verification from the city clerk, the commission shall publicize the substance of the initiative petition within the proposed neighborhood and call for the submission of any alternative initiative petition within forty-five calendar days after the publication.

(b) Within forty-five calendar days after the deadline for submission of alternative petitions, the commission shall hold at least two public hearings within the district boundaries of the proposed neighborhood. The purpose of the public hearings shall be to determine whether the proposed neighborhood should be formed and a board established. The commission shall accept written testimony up to and including the tenth calendar day after the close of the final public hearing.

(c) Not less than ten nor more than forty-five calendar days after the close of the final public hearing, the commission shall by resolution approve or disapprove the original initiative petition and any alternative initiative petition. The commission shall consider the neighborhood support in determining whether to approve or disapprove the petition. A written statement explaining the principal reasons for the commission's action shall accompany the resolution. [Eff] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-15-5 Reservation of commission powers. (a) The commission may amend any element of an initiative petition during the consideration process under section 2-15-4 in compliance with this plan and all other applicable laws:

- (1) When there is evidence of neighborhood support for the amendment;
- (2) To provide clarity to the initiative petition;
- (3) To promote fairness;
- (4) To promote the efficient administration of the neighborhood board system as a whole; or
- (5) To meet legal requirements.

(b) The commission may at any time during the consideration process amend initiative petitions to conform with the requirements of this plan and establish a schedule for the applicable boards to comply with the amended petition. [Eff] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-15-6 Amendment of the initiative petition. (a) Except for amendments affecting neighborhood district boundaries and geographical definitions, initiative petitions may be amended at any time in accordance with this section.

(b) Amendments to any initiative petition approved by the commission may be proposed by the action of the commission, the written request of the subject board, or by written request of the lesser of five per cent or one hundred of the registered voters within the proposed neighborhood district boundaries. [Eff] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-15-7 Amendment process. (a) The commission shall publicize the substance of the proposed amendment within the applicable neighborhood.

(b) Within forty-five calendar days after the publication, the commission shall hold a public hearing within the district boundaries of the proposed neighborhood. The commission shall accept written testimony up to and including the tenth calendar day after the close of the public hearing.

(c) Not less than ten nor more than forty-five calendar days after the close of the final public hearing, the commission shall by resolution approve or disapprove the proposed amendment or approve a revised form the proposed amendment. A written statement explaining the principal reasons for the commission's action shall accompany the resolution. [Eff] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-15-8 Number of board members. (a) The number of members on a board, from each district or subdistrict, as applicable, and the designation of board members as representing subdistricts or the district at large, shall be based on the population and the geographical definition of the neighborhood, and on the involvement of the neighborhood members.

(b) Notwithstanding other provisions set forth in this chapter, the commission may, by an affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the entire membership to which the commission is entitled:

- (1) Increase or decrease the amount of board members on a board, from each district or subdistrict, as applicable;
- (2) Change the representation of the members on a board from subdistricts to the district at large;
- (3) Change the representation of the members on a board from the district at large to subdistricts; based on any change in the factors set forth in subsection (a).

(c) For purposes of determining the factors set forth in subsection (a), the commission shall consider objective sources, including the United States census on population and housing, the commission's neighborhood boundary maps, and the amount of candidates for the neighborhood in the prior board elections. GENERAL PROVISIONS

§2-16-1 Neighborhood boundary definitions. The neighborhood district boundaries and their geographical definitions shall be as set forth in subchapter 2. [Eff] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-16-2 Boundary establishment standards. (a) The commission shall use the following standards for establishing neighborhood district boundaries:

- (1) Neighborhoods shall be established within the city.
- (2) No neighborhood district boundary may be drawn to unduly favor a person, community, agency, or political faction.
- (3) Neighborhoods, insofar as practicable, shall be contiguous and compact.
- (4) Neighborhood district boundaries shall, where possible, follow permanent and easily recognized features, such as streets, streams, and clear geographical features, and, when practicable, coincide with census tract, precinct, or other useful administrative boundaries.
- (5) The neighborhoods as a whole shall coincide so far as feasible with Oahu's historic communities. Where practicable, submergence of an area in a larger neighborhood wherein substantially different socioeconomic interests predominate shall be avoided.

(b) The commission shall also use the standards set forth in subsection (a) as guidelines for the periodic review of neighborhood district boundaries, the approval of amendments to initiative petitions,

SUBCHAPTER 3

VOTING PROCEDURES AND DISPOSITION

- §2-17-15 Ballots. (a) A ballot shall:
- (1) Contain the names of all candidates for the neighborhood district and subdistrict election, as applicable;
 - (2) Clearly indicate the manner in which the ballots are to be marked; and

§2-17-15

(3) Clearly indicate the maximum number of candidates for which the voter is legally entitled to vote.

(b) The names of the candidates shall be placed on the ballot in alphabetical order, last names (surname) first, and may be printed with the Hawaiian or English equivalent or nickname, provided the candidate so requests in writing on the candidate registration affidavit.

(c) The ballot shall bear no personal or professional title, word, motto, device, sign, or symbol other than the official seal of the city or the commission's logo, or both, unless otherwise declared essential by the chief elections officer.

(d) Draft ballot layouts may be made available for public inspection after the candidate registration filing deadline and for the purposes of voter education.

(e) The ballot mailing shall only contain materials pertaining to the election of board members.
[Eff] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-17-16 Ballot distribution deadline. The commission shall distribute ballots to voters by the fourth Friday in April of the election year. [Eff
] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-17-17 Replacement ballots. (a) A registered voter who does not receive, or who loses or spoils a ballot may notify the commission office in writing and request a replacement ballot seven days after the ballot distribution deadline and within ten days before the ballot return deadline.

(b) Upon receipt of a replacement ballot request within the period specified in subsection (a), the chief elections officer shall ascertain whether the individual is entitled to receive the replacement ballot requested.

(c) The commission shall issue a replacement ballot within seven days after receiving a request pursuant to subsection (a). [Eff] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-17-18 Return of ballots. (a) The ballot return deadline shall be the third Friday in May of the election year. Any ballot returned in person in the return envelope provided must be received by the commission office by 4:30 p.m. on the ballot return deadline. Any ballot returned by United States mail in the return envelope provided, shall be postmarked by the ballot return deadline and received by the commission office by the seventh calendar day thereafter to be accepted.

(b) Any ballot which is:

- (1) Delivered to the commission office other than in person or by United States mail;
- (2) Received in person or postmarked after the ballot return deadline;
- (3) Received by United States mail more than seven calendar days after the ballot return deadline; or
- (4) Is not sealed in a ballot envelope signed by the voter;

shall be disqualified and declared invalid. [Eff] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-17-19 Uncontested races. (a) The chief elections officer may determine whether to mail out ballots for any neighborhood district or subdistrict election, as applicable, which has an uncontested race.

(b) If ballots are not mailed out for a specific neighborhood district or subdistrict election, the chief elections officer shall use reasonable means to timely notify the affected electorate of the candidates, the uncontested race results, and any remaining vacancy in the respective neighborhood district or subdistrict.

ballots, including the original ballot, if received by the commission office, shall be marked "spoiled" and declared invalid.

(e) In no case shall more than one ballot vote be processed per voter.

(f) All invalid, spoiled, or challenged ballots and corresponding envelopes, if any, shall be segregated and retained apart from the other ballots and envelopes.

(g) In counting the ballots, the total number of ballots shall be verified to equal the total number of voted ballot envelopes recorded as received. When the number of ballots differs from the number of envelopes received, the chief monitoring officer shall report the difference after completion of the ballot tabulation.

(h) Should the difference of ballots be sufficient to change the outcome of any election contest, an investigation shall be conducted by the chief monitoring officer or a designated election official, or both. The chief monitoring officer's certified report disclosing the findings of the investigation shall be submitted with the chief elections officer's certified election results to the commission.

(i) All election materials shall be marked and maintained in a secure manner. All election materials shall be retained by the chief elections officer for sixty calendar days after the certified election results have been made public.

(j) Unless otherwise directed by the commission, after certification of the election results and expiration of the sixty calendar day period stated in subsection (i), the chief elections officer may destroy the ballots and other election materials not needed for the commission office archives. [Eff] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-17-22 Tie for last seat. In the event of a tie between two or more candidates for the last available

(b) The challenge shall be on the grounds that the individual fails to meet the voter eligibility or registration requirements set forth in section 2-17-5. The challenge shall be filed on a form provided by the commission office signed by the resident making the challenge. All voter registration challenges shall be timely filed with the chief elections officer, who shall promptly serve notice on the individual challenged.

(c) The chief elections officer shall, as soon as possible, investigate and decide on the challenge. The chief elections officer may conduct evidentiary hearings and administer oaths. If the chief elections officer elects to conduct a hearing, the hearing shall be held within ten calendar days after the challenge is filed. All challenges shall be decided within thirty days after they are filed. All decisions shall be issued in writing and promptly communicated to the parties to the challenge and the commission. [Eff] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-17-26 Candidate registration challenge. (a) Not later than the third Friday in March of the election year:

- (1) The chief elections officer;
- (2) The chief monitoring officer; or
- (3) A resident who is registered to vote in the election upon the filing of challenge with the commission office on a form provided by the commission office; may challenge the right of an individual to be or remain registered as a candidate in a specific neighborhood district or subdistrict, as applicable. No candidate registration challenge shall be accepted after this deadline.

(b) The challenge shall be on the grounds that the individual fails to meet the candidate eligibility or registration requirements as set forth in section

2-17-7. The chief elections officer shall promptly serve notice on the individual challenged.

(c) The chief elections officer may conduct evidentiary hearings and administer oaths. If the chief elections officer elects to conduct a hearing, the hearing shall be held within ten calendar days after the challenge is filed. All challenges shall be decided within fourteen calendar days after the challenge is filed. All decisions shall be issued in writing and promptly communicated to the parties to the challenge and the commission. [Eff]
(Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-17-27 Other challenges. (a) All challenges for election violations other than provided for under this subchapter shall be filed not later than seven calendar days after the certified election results are made public.

(b) All challenges under this section shall be filed on a form provided by the commission office signed by not less than thirty registered voters of the affected neighborhood district or subdistrict, as applicable. Challenges shall be timely filed with the chief elections officer, who shall promptly serve notice on the individual or individuals affected by the action.

(c) The chief elections officer may conduct evidentiary hearings and administer oaths. If the chief elections officer elects to conduct a hearing, the hearing shall be held within ten calendar days after the challenge is filed. All challenges shall be decided within fourteen calendar days after the challenge is filed. All decisions shall be issued in writing and promptly communicated to the parties to the challenge and the commission. [Eff]
(Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-17-28 Recall of a board member. (a) A board member may be removed by recall initiated by the commission upon the filing of a petition signed by the lesser of five per cent or one hundred of the registered voters within the board member's respective board district or subdistrict, as applicable, in the last held board election for that area.

(b) A recall petition shall be filed against a board member no earlier than ninety calendar days after commencement of the board member's term and no later than two hundred seventy calendar days before the end of the board member's term. No recall petition shall be filed within ninety calendar days after an unsuccessful recall election against the same board member.

(c) The recall petition shall include each signing voter's address, board district or subdistrict, as applicable, and the date of signing. Signatures on a recall petition may be on separate sheets but each sheet shall have appended to it the affidavit of some person, not necessarily a signer of the petition, that to the best of the affiant's knowledge the persons whose signatures appear on the sheet are duly registered voters of the specific board district or subdistrict, as applicable, that they signed with full knowledge of the contents of the petition, and that their residences are correct.

(d) The commission shall verify that the petition contains a sufficient number of apparently genuine signatures of registered voters. The commission may question the genuineness of any signature appearing on the recall petition and if the commission finds that any signature are not genuine, the commission shall disregard them in determining whether the petition contains a sufficient number of signatures. The commission shall also disregard any signature dated more than sixty calendar days before the petition was tendered for filing. The commission shall eliminate any sheet of the petition which is not accompanied by the required affidavit. The invalidity of any sheet of the petition shall not affect the validity of the petition if a sufficient number of signatures remain after eliminating an invalid sheet.

The commission shall complete the examination of the petition within thirty calendar days after the submission of the petition to the commission and shall thereupon accept the petition if valid or reject it if invalid.

(e) As soon as the commission has accepted a recall petition, the commission shall notify the board member that the petition has been accepted. Upon receipt of the notice, the elected board member may choose to resign from office and thereupon the recall proceedings shall terminate.

(f) If the board member does not resign from office within ten calendar days after receiving notice of the acceptance of the recall petition, the commission shall schedule a special recall election for the affected district or subdistrict, as applicable. A special recall election shall be held within sixty calendar days after the ten calendar day period has expired. The board member may resign at any time before the recall election and thereupon the election shall not be held.

(g) The following question shall be presented to each voter in a recall election: "Shall (name of board member) be recalled and removed from the (name of board) board?"

(h) If a majority of the registered voters who vote on the question at a recall election vote "Yes," the board member shall be recalled and removed from office. Otherwise, the board member shall remain in office.

(i) No individual who has been recalled from a board or who has resigned from a board after a recall petition directed to that individual has been accepted by the commission, shall be eligible for election or appointment to any board of the city for two years after that individual's recall or resignation. REVIEW AND COMPLAINT PROCESSES

- §2-18-1 Request for review.
- §2-18-2 Review process of the commission.
- §2-18-3 Hearing to impose sanctions.
- §2-18-4 Sanctions.
- §2-18-5 Contested case process.

§2-18-1 Request for review. (a) Any person may seek the review of:

- (1) Any board action or activity; or
- (2) The official action or activity of any current board member;

by written request to the commission within forty-five calendar days after the action or activity.

(b) Upon review of the action or activity, the commission chair or any duly authorized representative of the commission may:

- (1) Provide a response to the requester and the applicable board or board member, setting forth the conclusions of the commission chair or the representative on the review;
- (2) Where practicable, mediate a resolution between the requester and the applicable board or board member on any issue under review; or

(3) Present the request to the commission for the commission's review.

(c) If the commission chair or the authorized representative provides a response pursuant to subsection (b)(1), any requester, board, or board member subject to the review that is not satisfied with the response may within 10 days of receiving the response request in writing further review of the matter by the commission pursuant to section 2-18-2.

(d) The commission chair shall regularly report to the commission on the review requests received, the nature and the disposition of those inquiries, and may make recommendations to the commission.

(e) The commission may authorize the executive secretary to perform the actions set forth in subsections (b) and (d). [Eff] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-18-2 Review process of the commission. (a) The commission shall review any request presented to the commission pursuant to section 2-18-1(b)(3) and any request seeking further review pursuant to section 2-18-1(c).

(b) Except as prevented by law, the commission shall initiate a review by its next regular meeting after presentation of the request. The commission may seek additional relevant information to provide a sufficient basis for the prompt consideration and disposition of any matter.

(c) The commission shall resolve the matter in the best interests of fairness, adherence to law, and to provide policy and administrative guidance for the neighborhood board system.

(d) If the commission finds that the actions or activities of the board or board member were inappropriate, the commission may:

(1) Recommend appropriate actions or remedies equal in measure or extent to the significance or seriousness of the action or activity; or

- (2) For actions or activities that violate this plan, initiate a sanction hearing pursuant to section 2-18-3. [Eff] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-18-3 Hearing to impose sanctions. (a) The initiation of a hearing to impose sanctions against a board or a current board member for alleged violation(s) of this plan in accordance with this section may be initiated by:

- (1) The executive secretary, at any time, by written recommendation to the commission;
- (2) The commission, at any time, by adoption of a resolution;
- (3) A board, upon the filing of a complaint with the commission office on a form provided by the commission office within forty-five days calendar after the alleged violation(s); or
- (4) A member of the public, upon the filing of a complaint with the commission office on a form provided by the commission office within forty-five days calendar after the alleged violation(s).

(b) Any board or person filing a complaint pursuant to subsection (a)(3) or (4) must have a legally protectible and tangible interest adversely affected by the violation(s) alleged in the request.

(c) The commission may, at any time, dismiss any complaint or end any sanctions proceeding for failure to comply with any requirement under this section.

(d) Within ten calendar days after receipt of a recommendation, adoption of resolution, or filing of a complaint, the commission, by registered or certified mail, shall notify the respondent. If initiated pursuant to the complaint procedure under subsection (a)(3) or (4), a copy of the complaint shall be furnished with the notice.

(e) A response to the allegation(s) shall be filed with the commission on a form furnished by the commission within thirty calendar days after the date of the notice; provided that the commission or its authorized designee, who may be the executive secretary, may extend the filing deadline if the respondent submits valid reasons in writing for the delay before the filing deadline for the response.

(f) If the respondent fails to timely file a response, any allegation contained in the recommendation, resolution, or complaint shall be deemed admitted by the respondent.

(g) After the foregoing provisions have been met, the commission shall set a date for a hearing.

(h) Within ten calendar days after the date has been set, the commission shall notify in writing, by registered or certified mail, the respondent and, if initiated by complaint pursuant to subsection (a)(3) or (4), the complainant. A copy of the applicable recommendation, resolution, or complaint, and the response shall be included with the notice.

(i) If initiated pursuant to subsection (a)(1) or (2), within ten calendar days before the date of the hearing, the respondent shall file with the commission, and the commission shall provide to respondent, a list of witnesses (including addresses), a list of exhibits, and copies of any evidence to be introduced at the hearing to support their respective positions. Failure to abide by the provisions of this section may result in the exclusion of the witnesses or evidence, or both, at the hearing.

(j) If initiated by complaint under subsection (a)(3) or (4), within ten calendar days before the date of the hearing, the respondent and the complainant shall file with the commission, a list of witnesses (including addresses), a list of exhibits, and copies of any evidence to be introduced at the hearing to support their respective positions. Copies of the list of witnesses, list of exhibits, and evidence shall be exchanged between the complainant and the respondent. Failure to abide by the provisions of this section may result in the exclusion of the witnesses or evidence, or both, at the hearing.

(k) If initiated pursuant to subsection (a)(1) or (2), the sanctions hearing shall be conducted by the commission as follows:

- (1) The commission shall initiate the hearing by setting forth the respondent's alleged violations of the plan and the commission's evidence of the violations.
- (2) The commission may seek additional relevant information from the respondent or other persons in furtherance of determining the issue under consideration.
- (3) The respondent shall respond to the allegations and may present any evidence in furtherance of the respondent's case.
- (4) The formal rules of evidence shall not apply to the sanction hearings.
- (5) Upon the presentation of the case by the respondent, the commission shall deliberate and determine whether to sanction the respondent and, if so, the appropriate sanction equal in measure or extent to the significance or seriousness of the violation(s).
- (6) After due deliberation, the commission may render an oral decision and within ten business days after the decision shall issue a decision in writing.

(1) If initiated by complaint under subsection (a)(3) or (4), the sanctions hearing shall proceed as follows:

- (1) The complainant shall proceed by making an opening statement, if desired, stating what the complainant intends to establish while the respondent may also give an opening statement, if desired, stating what the respondent intends to establish.
- (2) Thereafter the complainant may proceed with the complainant's case by calling witnesses or submitting any evidence in support of the complainant's case.

- (3) During the presentation of the case by either the complainant or the respondent, cross-examination of witnesses shall be permitted.
- (4) Any document, writing, or object introduced as evidence in support of any party's position must first be examined by the opposing party before being introduced as evidence.
- (5) The formal rules of evidence shall not apply to sanction hearings.
- (6) Upon the conclusion of the presentation of the complainant's case, the commission may make a determination whether or not the complainant has submitted sufficient evidence to support the complainant's case. If so, the respondent may proceed with the respondent's case. If not, the commission may adjourn into an executive session to make a determination whether or not to dismiss the complaint.
- (7) Upon the conclusion of the presentation of the case by the complainant and the respondent, the commission shall deliberate and determine whether to sanction the respondent and, if so, the appropriate sanction equal in measure or extent to the significance or seriousness of the violation(s).
- (8) After due deliberation, the commission may render an oral decision and within fifteen business days after completion of the hearing issue a decision in writing.

(m) As used in this section, "complainant" and "respondent" mean:

"Complainant" means the board or person initiating the sanctions hearing pursuant to subsection (a).

"Respondent" means the board or board member, or both, named in the recommendation, resolution or complaint initiating a sanctions hearing pursuant to subsection (a). [Eff] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

§2-18-4 Sanctions. (a) The commission, after conducting a hearing pursuant to section 2-18-3, may impose sanctions on a board or on an officer or member of a board.

(b) Sanctions may be imposed subject to one or more conditions. Sanctions which may be imposed include:

- (1) Letters of reprimand with instructions for remedial action;
- (2) Removal of a board officer from the board office;
- (3) Suspension of a board member from the board for a period of not more than sixty calendar days, with any board meeting missed during the period of suspension of the board member to be counted as an absence;
- (4) Removal of a board member from the board for the remainder of the member's term of office; and
- (5) Suspension of a board's operations.

(c) If a board is suspended, the suspension shall apply to all board activities, unless otherwise specified in the suspension order. A suspension may be based on, but not limited to:

- (1) Unfilled vacancies on the board;
- (2) Successive failure to attain quorum; and
- (3) Exigent circumstances relating to board conduct. [Eff _____] (Auth: RCH §14-103(a)) (Imp: RCH §14-104)

S2-18-5 Contested case process. Any party subjected to sanctions after a hearing conducted pursuant to section 2-18-3 who is not satisfied with the commission's determination may apply to the commission for a contested case proceeding pursuant to chapter 91, HRS, within thirty days after the commission issues its written decision. [Eff

§2-18-5
